Town mayor: 'We must promote Seaton as a coastal destination'

SEATON mayor Peter Burrows has emphasised the importance of promoting Seaton as a coastal destination during the current difficult financial climate.

By Laura Goldsbury Noy
laura@pemedial.co.uk

This is one of the key points stressed by Cllr Burrows in his annual New Year message to

Cllr Burrows' message read: "During the current year, Seaton has been going through transition with proposals coming forward from the Regeneration area.

"The first stage of the development of the Jurassic Visitors Centre is to begin next year and the first drawings of the seafront enhancement will be produced.

"This will enable residents to comment further on the designs drawn up and hopefully come up with a consensus view.

"Seaton Town Council has already put money aside to support a new jetty that hopefully will support a waterborne transport system along the Jurassic coast.

"A new Lottery grant will be submitted next year to support this.

"Next year should see a new application for 200 plus houses next to the Tesco store, coming shortly after rejection of the houses on the Racial site.

"Seaton Town Council supported the development but at a Planning meeting a change of conditions was defeated by one vote and has stalled the progress of this much needed development.

"Seaton has reopened its much needed TIC and has employed a Marketing & Events manager to promote Seaton to the wider community.

"In these hard times it is imperative that we promote Seaton as a coastal destination.

"We have great events such as the Carnival, Air Ambulance Week and the Grizzly, something we can build on to encourage visitors.

"The Stop Line cycle way should be completed in a couple of years and this, along with the improved Wetlands, should bring in the ecology minded tourist who should appreciate the Jurassic coast.

"Earlier in the year we sadly lost Ray Morgan, our Deputy Mayor, a family man who cared passionately about Seaton and he will be sorely missed.

"There are storm clouds on the horizon with another development proposed for the far end of Seaton abutting the boundary with Colyford.

"The town council has sent East Devon a 2,400 word objection to this application, especially the allocation of housing on the site.

"One thing not to do, if a visitor, is mention the access road across Windsor Gardens and why have East Devon allowed it.

"Any reply would not add to your enjoyment of Seaton."

Warning to walkers over cliffs and rivers

DEVON County Council is warning walkers, cyclists and horse riders to take extra care when using paths close to rivers and cliffs over the next few days.

Persistent rain means the ground is saturated and river levels are high in and around Seaton, so there is an increased risk of surface water and river flooding as well as the potential for fallen trees and landslips.

Devon County Council's Cabinet Member for Highways and Transportation, Councillor Stuart Hughes, said: "Around Christmas and New Year is a popular time for walking and getting outside for some fresh air, but I would advise people to be extra careful when using the footpaths around Devon, especially those close to rivers and cliffs.

"The recent weather means the paths will be sodden, which increases the risk of landslips and falling trees and many river levels are much higher than usual because of the rain.

"It's also important that people make sure they are up to date with the latest flood and weather warning information, which can be found on the Environment Agency's website, and via the Met Office.

"We are working with colleagues at the Met Office and the Environment Agency to monitor the situation over the coming days, and get ready to respond to emergencies."

Multiple injuries in pub brawls

AN AXMINSTER man was left fighting for his life after being brutally assaulted at a local pub before Christmas.

Police and ambulance personnel were called to the Red Lion in Lyme Street and Axminster Inn in Silver Street in unrelated incidents in the early hours of Saturday morning.

A brawl at the Red Lion in Lyme Street involved around 30 revellers, resulting in several injuries including a possible malicious wounding.

A fight broke out at Axminster Inn where local trader Terry Barker suffered a fracture to the skull.

An eye witness told Pulman's View that Mr Barker, 43, was held in an armlock and then repeatedly kicked in the head by others.

As well as suffering serious head injuries, Mr Barker, who runs "Shoe Mate" in Silver Street, was left with eight broken ribs, two punctured lungs and several broken fingers. He was rushed to Musgrove Park Hospital in Taunton where he was released after treatment.

But the severity of his injuries did not become apparent until he returned home to Axminster where his condition deteriorated rapidly and he was rushed by ambulance to Dorchester Hospital where he spent some time in intensive care.

Mr Barker, the father of two children, was celebrating with friends at the Axminster Inn after taking part in a "pagan" wedding ceremony on Lyme Regis beach earlier in the day.

The incidents are being investigated by CID officers from Honiton who said that all those involved in the brawls were being identified and would be interviewed. No arrests have been made.

From the editor's chair Town's night of shame

IN LAST week's column I was expressing the wish that all our readers would enjoy a peaceful Christmas.

Well, it turned out anything but for those who went out to enjoy a quiet pre-Christmas drink in two Axminster pubs, as reported on page one of our Axminster edition and on the East Devon News Digest on this page (see left).

Some people are referring to it as "Axminster's night of shame" which may be a bit strong but certainly serious concern has been expressed over the severe beating meted out to one of the unfortunate victims in the two-pub brawls that took place in the early hours of last Saturday morning.

Axminster trader Terry Barker was left with a fracture to the skull, several broken ribs, two punctured lungs and four broken fingers.

That's a severe and shameful assault in any language.

Police and ambulance personnel were called to unrelated incidents at the Red Lion Inn and the Axminster Inn, two of Axminster's most popular public houses.

It is said that up to 30 revellers were involved in the disturbance outside the Red Lion.

Fortunately, after early concerns for his condition, Mr Barker has made a remarkable recovery and was discharged from hospital on Friday afternoon. It could have been a very different story.

At the time of going to press, no arrests had been made but police enquiries are continuing and it is to be hoped that the culprits of the attack on Mr Barker, and those responsible at the Red Lion earlier that evening, are apprehended and dealt with accordingly and with punishments which reflect the brutality of the attacks.

The incidents are bound to lead to calls for a greater police presence in Axminster. In recent years great concerns have been expressed about the policing levels in the town and the constant changing of personnel. Questions will certainly be asked at the next town council meeting.

With the newly appointed Police and Crime Commissioner for Devon and Cornwall, Tony Hogg, now in place, this may be an opportune moment for an invitation to be extended to him to visit Axminster and outline his plans for future policing of East Devon where, we are told, there is often only one policeman on duty at night to cover the whole area.

COLYTON

Feoffees appoint first woman

THE COLYTON Chamber of Feoffees has appointed the first ever woman to hold an official role within the charitable group.

Sarah Charman has been appointed to the role of bailiff and will assume her duties in January. It is thought she is the first woman to hold the post or any other official post within the Chamber of Feoffees since it was established in 1546.

As bailiff, Mrs Charman will act as clerk to the Feoffees, taking minutes of meetings and being responsible for all paperwork and secretarial work.

Mrs Charman recently moved to Colyton from Southfields, London, following her retirement from the civil service. Her career in government included five years as press secretary at 10 Downing Street, serving Prime Ministers Margaret Thatcher and John Major.

Commenting on her new role in the latest Colyton Church and Community newsletter, she said: "I am delighted and honoured to have been appointed to this historic role and bailiff to the Chamber of Feoffees and am looking forward to serving the community in Colyton."

HONITON

A 59-year-old man died when a car and a lorry collided on the A30 near Honiton on Christmas Eve.

Emergency services were called to the two-vehicle crash at Rawridge Hill at 11.35 am.

A police spokesperson said: "A silver Ford Focus travelling towards Honiton had been in collision with a lorry which was heading towards Somerset.

"The driver of the Focus, who was from London, but was living with family in the local area, sustained serious injuries and died at the scene.

"The driver of the lorry, a 50-year-old man from Launceston, suffered minor injuries."

The road was closed for 10 hours while police investigated the scene and removed the HGV.

SIDMOUTH

Swimmers brave Boxing Day dip

AS HUNDREDS of spectators lined Sidmouth's seafront for the annual Boxing Day dip, brave swimmers were pulled from the sea after being swept onto the rocks.

Despite the stormy skies and choppy waters, a huge number of people braved the conditions to support the traditional Sidmouth swim, but a handful of unlucky swimmers emerged from the sea after being rescued by members of the lifeboat team, some of them badly grazed.

Just under 400 people participated in this year's dip, many arriving in a spectacular array of fancy dress Christmas themed costumes.

Packing the seafront with colourful costumes and imaginative outfits, the brave swimmers enjoyed festive punch provided by RNLI volunteers at Sidmouth's lifeboat station before gathering on the beach for the main event.

But as llam struck, and the swimmers rushed into the cold waters, the rough seas and choppy conditions forced many to come running straight back out, some emerging from the water with cuts and minor injuries.

Organiser Keith Knight was quoted in a national newspaper, which prominently featured the drama under the headline of "'Swimming into terror'", as saying: "A few people had a few scrapes but there was no serious injuries. It went well considering the weather."

Pulman's View from the churches

With NIGEL SPELLER

NEW Year is the time when the leaders of all our Churches like to offer messages for the months ahead, and this year is no exception.

First comes the outgoing Archbishop of Canterbury Rowan Williams who used his final sermon at Canterbury Cathedral to reflect on the damage to the church's credibility caused by the vote against women bishops.

Pope Benedict XVI used his Christmas message (on Twitter) to pray for peace in the Middle East after acknowledging that religion has been misused in history. He addressed the conflicts raging across the Holy Land, North Africa, Mali, Nigeria, and Kenya. He warned of the dangers when people think they have to take God's causes into their own hands. He did not deny a misuse of religion in history, but said that a world without God would not bring peace.

The incoming Archbishop of Canterbury, Justin Welby, said at Durham, that it was easy to be despondent about the Church, when reflecting on the growing clash between secular and religious morals. The true Christmas story which has at its heart the triumph of love over hopefulness and weakness over strength, justify the Church's struggles for "good news" in our poor world.

The year ahead is likely to see more clashes over issues of women bishops and gay marriages. In all these messages great use was made of Twitter in order to reach younger Britons. Our Prime Minister also adopted a mostly Christian note in his message which spoke of faith giving hope to countless millions, referring to Jesus as "the light of all mankind." Also a former Archbishop of Canterbury, Lord Carey, said that the PM should be applauded for having nailed his colour to the mast.

Our own Bishop of Exeter ended the old year in the news at the House of Lords, by offering views on the Israeli-Arab conflict, and criticism of forthcoming cuts in payments of disability allowance, which will severely reduce recipients ability to help themselves from April next. Government response was not entirely hopeful.

Looking ahead, there is confirmation that the women bishops legislation will be revisited by the House of Bishops of the General Synod in time for the next General Synod in July 2013. Before then the Week of Prayer for Christian Unity 2013 comes in January 2013 from 18th-25th. Churches Together in Britain offer booklets from their website.

A Happy New Year to all our readers.

Three on bail

OFFICERS investigating the unexplained death of a woman in Axminster have arrested and bailed three people in connection with alleged drugs supply offences.

Police were called to an address in Millwey Avenue in Axminster on December 5th by the ambulance service.

A police spokesperson said: "Ambulance crews had to take a 40-year-old woman to Royal Devon and Exeter Hospital, but staff were unable to resuscitate her and she died later that day.

"Police investigating are treating the death as unexplained, but will prepare a file for the coroner in due course.

"Following further enquiries, two people were arrested on December 11th and on December 19th a third person was arrested on suspicion of supplying Class A drugs."

All three are due to answer bail in the New Year.

FIREFIGHTERS rescued one person whose car was stuck in water on the A358 at Weycroft Bridge, near Axminster.

The call came in at about 11.45am on Thursday, December 20th and a spokesperson for the fire and rescue service said: "Two appliances - one from Axminster and one from Colyton - with the Specialist Rescue Team and ranger with mud mats from the Urban Search and Rescue based at the Devon and Somerset Fire and Rescue Service headquarters at Clyst St George were mobilised.

"On arrival at the scene one vehicle was located on a public highway in flood water with one person still inside.

"Crews donned two dry suits and used wading poles to remove one female from flood water onto dry land and the vehicle to higher ground."

■ AFTER A SCOOP: Axe Valley primary pupils take a break from their reporting duties

Pupils become reporters for the day

CHILDREN from five local primary schools visited Axe Valley Community College in Axminster to take part in a newsday challenge workshop

English teacher Karoline Mandy assumed the role of editor to lead the workshop, which was the last in a series of three.

The workshop was held on Wednesday, December 5th and gave the Year 5 and 6 an opportunity to look at and understand the differences between tabloid and broadsheet newspapers.

They played a fun headline game, brushed up on grammar skills and had a session on writing emotively.

They then worked in groups to produce an edition of their own newspaper.

After interviewing members of staff about college trips and events, the budding reporters wrote up their stories to produce an edition of their very own newspaper.

Mrs Mandy said: "The group did a fantastic job and produced some impressive work.

"At the end of the day it was all hands on deck. As one worked on the layout, another was cutting, another colouring, and another sticking.

"It was a hive of activity.

"The children got an insight into how frenetic a newspaper can be when deadlines are tight.

"In the end all of the newspapers came together and all of the hard work paid off."

The primary schools taking part were Axminster Community Primary School, Shute Community Primary School, Kilmington Primary School, All Saints Primary School and Musbury Primary School.

A COUNCIL and a charity joined forces to stage a Christmas party for youngsters in Millwey Rise, Axminster.

The party was organised by East Devon District Council community development worker Victoria Robinson, who drafted in Health and Local Food for Families (HALFF) volunteer Peeps Gregory to cook the meal.

Victoria said: "The children had a fabulous time, and the older group helped in the kitchen to prepare a Christmas meal, so it really was a team effort and a good start to Christmas."

HALFF'S Tiggy Parry added: "HALFF hopes to be able to support more groups in the community like this, so if you have some time to give, please come and see us at No HALFF Measures in South Street."

Missing man found

An Axminster man who went missing has been found safe and well.

Police issued an appeal for information week commencing December 10th when it was reported that the 49-year-old had been missing since December 1st

There was a happy ending, though, and PCSO Andy Trott explained on Monday December 17th that the man had been found safe and well.

Marcus off to South America to work for Christian charity

By Anders Larsson

A NICARAGUA-bound youngster said that he was "pleasantly surprised by the generosity of local people" after a fundraising concert in Axminster.

Axe Valley Community College student Marcus Wood organised a concert in Axminster Guildhall to raise money for his forthcoming trip to Nicaragua, where he will assist Seed International Fund Trust (SIFT).

The christian charity, which has a base in Seaton, helps the poor of Nicaragua in various ways, and Marcus will spend two weeks there in February next year.

After having been postponed because of bad weather, the concert was eventually held on Tuesday, December 4th and featured a string of talented, local youngsters.

Marcus said: "After a truly fantastic evening of music, with a big turn out of around 140 people, I was able to raise £495.70 from the night alone, with an addition of £240 from people who couldn't make it but still gave anyway."

The amount is expected to increase as there is more money to collect.

He added: "I have been pleasantly surprised by the generosity of the local people and the support they are willing to give, including the gracious managers of the Guildhall."

Guildhall management allowed the rescheduling of the event with no extra cost. Marcus said: "I'd like to say thank you to all those who came to support me, the performers, and Geoff Enticott (the caretaker) for helping us out.

"Thank you also to Tesco who donated a good few boxes of mince pies, making the evening just that little bit more Christmassy and special.

"I am now not far off my target. If you were unable to make it, but would still like to support me, Axe Valley Community College will be collecting any donations in envelopes marked with my name, as will the SIFT office in Seaton."

Seaton swimmers enjoy Boxing Day dip

AROUND a dozen brave souls from Seaton ignored the choppy seas and cloudy skies to take part in the Boxing Day swim.

The small group of swimmers embraced the annual dip, despite difficult swimming conditions, with some even arriving in colourful onesies and fancy dress to add to the fun.

Festive competition winners

STAFF at Seaton Library got into the festive spirit when they held a wreath making competition for visiting children.

After a tough job judging the many colourful and sparkly decorations, staff members chose six overall winners.

The winners were: Rebecca Evans, aged 7;

Arthur Handley, aged 5;
Innes Fitzgerald, aged 6;
Lola Powell, aged 4;
Georgia Webster, aged 2;
Carlotta, aged 2.

Library Supervisor, Sarah Jones said: "Our borrowers of all ages have loved looking at the wreaths and several have asked if the wreaths were available to borrow so they could hang them on their own front doors."

Each winner was presented with a prize and the library thanked all those who entered and Tesco for donating the prizes.

THE Seaton and District Lions were given a super boost when two events raised more than £900.

The Christmas table top sale welcomed more than 20 stalls to the town hall packed full of gifts, festive treats and local produce and was well supported by the public.

The evening then played host to the annual Lions Cabaret, which welcomed a huge number of people back to the town hall for an evening of festive fun and entertainment.

The guests enjoyed a three-course meal before entertainment was provided by singer Stephanie Coombs and comedy act Spencer and Lee.

Everyone was then out of their seats as band HeeShee had everyone up singing and dancing.

A spokesperson for the Seaton and District Lions said: "It was a busy day for the Lions but a successful one and we are very grateful to everyone who came along to raise a fantastic amount of money for a charitable services to the community."

Lions' Christmas events raise more than £900

Crowds turnout for Boxing Day hunt

A HUGE crowd lined Seaton seafront on Boxing Day as the traditional hunt paraded through the town.

Despite the grey skies, the annual meet was well supported with hundreds lining the town's esplanade to witness the Axe Vale Hunt party parade across the seafront and up Castle Hill.

The party first met outside The Hook and Parrot on the esplanade where members gathered, surrounded by crowds and the stirrup cup was served.

Leading this year's hunt was Master of the Hunt, Ross Wilmington, who was overwhelmed by the number of supporters who turned out on Boxing Day to support the party.

He said: "We were extremely well supported this year with huge crowds, which were certainly some of the biggest I have ever seen during our meet in Seaton and far more than previous years."

"Over 50 riders joined in this year's event and all were pleased to see how much support had come from the local community."

"With the ongoing issues surrounding hunting and the ongoing debate with events such as this year's Heythrop hunt prosecution in Oxfordshire, it really shows how local people in and around Seaton are supporting us and their continuing rural tradition.

"We were made very welcome this year and as usual no local farmers or land owners objected to our arrival, so we were very pleased to have such support from the rural community."

Christmas time at the Visually Impaired Club

MEMBERS of Seaton Visually Impaired Club enjoyed a special Christmas celebration to end their year on a high.

The group enjoyed their last meeting of the year by embracing the Christmas period with a festive tea, poetry and carol singing.

A Christmas treat came in the form of a specially created Christmas cake and Victoria sponge, made by Peter at Pebbles café, and a well supported tombola with prizes donated from local businesses meant that everyone attending took home a gift.

Over the year, the visually impaired club has been supported by local organisations such as the carnival committee, Waitrose Community Fund and Seaton Town Council who all contributed towards the costs of both the annual Christmas meal and festive meeting.

Regular members of the club were also treated to a Christmas meal at the Hare and Hounds at the beginning of December where around 40 members and their carers celebrated together.

The group thanked all who had supported them during the year at their regular meetings and special events. The dedicated volunteers who run the club were also thanked by all the members.

Children tell story of Ralph the Reindeer

KEY Stage One children at Honiton Primary School finished the year with a bang with their Christmas production of "Ralph the Reindeer".

Taking to a stage filled with presents, a special Santa's grotto and an exciting workshop, the youngsters told the story of a special reindeer called Ralph.

Dressed as Santa's elves, reindeers and a few other characters, the play told the story of how Ralph fights to save Christmas after Rudolph falls sick.

As Ralph can't fly, the elves must find a way for Santa to deliver all his presents, firing Ralph out of cannons, and sprinkling him with magical dust.

Packed full of colourful costumes, Christmas magic and song and dance, the children put on a great show to a packed audience full of family and friends.

Pupils enjoy Christmas panto

HONITON Primary School pupils enjoyed a Christmas treat when they were given the chance to see pantomime "Dick Whittington" at the Barnfield Theatre in Exeter.

Six coaches set off early with nearly the whole school including staff and headteacher, Andrea Brown, keen to watch the Christmas show.

The trip, which was organised by Year 1 teacher Heather Hodgson, had the children joining in the panto with traditional booing and hissing at the villains, and cheering and singing along to the light-hearted humour, song and dance.

As an extra treat, the children were each handed a goody bag of sweets and festive snacks for them to enjoy during the show.

Special guests at hospital fayre

PATIENTS of Honiton Hospital were greeted by a trio of special visitors before Christmas, including Mayor David Foster, town crier David Retter and Santa Claus.

The special guests visited the hospital for its Christmas Fayre on Saturday, December 15th. The fayre included music from Honiton Town Band plus book and craft stalls, bric-a-brac and a raffle, while a Christmas cake and other produce were auctioned off.

The fayre was organised by the hospital's League of Friends and took place in the outpatient physiotherapy department.

League of Friends chairman Heather Penwarden said: "There was plenty of festive fun throughout the afternoon, with lots of people attending to purchase Christmas gifts, drink tea and delicious cakes and sing carols to the music of the town band.

"Those patients who were able joined us from the ward and some members of the band went to play in the day room for people unable to leave their beds.

"A jolly good time was had by all and a healthy profit was made for the League of Friends – all of which will go back to providing extra comforts for the patients of our super community hospital."

In addition, Honiton 2nd Guides and 2nd

Brownies visited the medical ward to sing carols to patients and staff the following Tuesday evening.

Matron Mickie Dicks said: "They sang with great spirit and were rewarded with drinks and cakes."

Football club wins £350 grant

HONITON Youth Football has received a £350 share of a £100,000 grant through a community vote.

The club won the money as part of Kumho Tyres' "Cash for Causes" campaign.

The international company pledged to make a difference in local communities over the summer by donating money to deserving causes. The "Cash for Causes" initiative saw Kumho Tyres give away more than £100,000 to deserving local charities, groups and projects, through its network of independent tyre retail partners.

JD Tyre & Exhaust Centre, the Kumho EPC retailer in Honiton, nominated Honiton Youth Football and Honiton Cricket Club as their worthy recipients.

Honiton Youth Football intends to help cover the costs of new kits and essential training equipment with the grant.

Honiton Cricket Club also received £150 and intends to put the money towards better training equipment and improved facilities.

Ten top tips to help you look and feel your best in this year!

TO help get you started on those small but meaningful changes, here are 10 fast and easy health and beauty resolutions - little things you can do to positively change the way you feel - and the way you look - in 2012! Try one - or all ten - and you'll see the difference before spring!

1. Never go to bed wearing make-up. No matter how tired you are, no matter how late it is, take just two minutes to slather on and tissue off a facial cleanser and your skin will thank you. Not only will it help remove surface bacteria that could encourage breakouts, most make up is drying to the skin so removing it will help reduce wrinkling while you sleep. If you can squeeze in 30 more seconds for a quick application of moisturiser, you'll see a definite difference in your face in 7 days or less!

2. Never leave the house without sunscreen on your face. I know...you've heard it all before. But I promise you that taking this two minute step will not only yield enormous health benefits (like reducing your risk of skin cancer) it's also the single most important anti aging skin care step you can take. It's true - the sun IS the number one cause of wrinkles and aging skin. And sunscreen - well it's the biggest gun in your wrinkle defense arsenal! To make using it easy and automatic, look for either a moisturiser or a foundation with an SPF 15.

3. Protect your lips - and look younger! Protect your pucker with a lip gloss or balm containing sunscreen. When lips are hydrated and protected they will automatically look fuller - and you'll look younger! You can capitalise on the protection if you swap out a matte lipstick for a high wattage gloss in a medium warm pink tone.

4. Whiten your teeth. If you haven't done it yet, this is the one resolution you MUST try! Not only is it the quickest, most inexpensive way to take years off your appearance, it can boost your confidence and give you that polished, well groomed look.

5. Clean out your make-up bag / bathroom drawer / vanity - and throw away any products you've had more than a year. Not only can this help prevent potentially serious eye or skin infections, it will force you to re-evaluate your make up needs - and every woman needs to do that at least once a year! When you head out to the stores to buy items, step out of the box to try a new colour or a new make up product

6. Keep up with your hair colouring. If you're wearing a shade you just can't bear to change, make sure you touch up those roots every 4 weeks. If the time - or the expense - doesn't permit that kind of attention, then think about having your hair professionally highlighted and low lighted - a mixture of many shades and tones of basic colors like honey blonde, or chestnut brown. The look lasts for up to six months without a touch up.

7. Trade in your shower gel for a moisturising bar of soap. Did you ever wonder why the ingredients label on your shower gel is two inches long and filled with chemical terms you can't pronounce - while the ingredients on an average bar of beauty soap is just one sentence? Most gels contain chemicals, dyes, foaming agents, and lots of drying alcohol - all things your skin doesn't need. Try a daily shower with a moisturising soap instead - and see your entire body complexion come alive in just 14 days or less. And - you'll save money too!

8. Wear a bronzer all year long. Most women think of a powder bronzer as a summertime treat. Just a quick pouf of powder on the bridge of your nose, the tops of your cheeks, and round the outer rim of your forehead will give you a glow.

9. Take a calcium/vitamin D supplement every day. While many women believe calcium is only important if you're pregnant - or post menopausal - the truth is women of all ages need this vital mineral to maintain a strong and healthy skeleton - and protect against broken bones. What you may not realise: Studies show women in their 20's need this protection as much as women in their 50's! But that's not all! The latest research shows getting adequate calcium may also help keep skin looking younger longer! And since we're all staying out the sun, the vitamin D is essential to make sure the calcium you take is absorbed. Try it for a month - you'll see a difference!

10. Wear fragrance every day! Even if you're just spending the day doing laundry or cleaning the bathroom, studies show that wearing your favourite fragrance is a great way to lift your mood and keep energy levels high. Starting your day with a dousing of fragrance will also make you feel special - and that can affect how you act and react during the entire day. If you can't afford to use your favourite pricey designer fragrance every day, look for scented body lotions or anoint your pulse points with a fragrant bath oil.

Healing hands from Head to Feet

I FIRST started caring for peoples health in the sixties when I did my S.E.N nursing training in Sheffield.

The real introduction to Complementary Medicine was when my second child become ill, and it was only osteopathy that helped her. About the same time a friend of mine was having trouble with her back, she asked me if I could massage it for her, as I seemed to have healing hands, I was able to give her a lot of relief, being in a lot of pain at the time. I become more and more interested in Complementary Medicine and was able to help my friends and family even more.

It wasn't until we came down to live in Axminster, I was working as a Care Assistant in a Dementia Care Home, that I decided to take a course or 3 with the "School of Natural Health Sciences" in Reflexology, Advanced Reflexology", and "Indian Head Massage". I was an A student. I became a member of the "International College of Holistic Medicine". As Indian Head Massage consists also of back and shoulder massage [as well as neck head and face] with or without out hands I am able to continue with Back and Shoulder massage as a separate therapy if required. I am able to work from home including home visits, and care homes. Treatments usually last about 1hr. and includes perfumed candles and soft relaxing music.

Reflexology is massage of the body as a whole through the feet or hands. As with Indian Head Massage it relaxes and stimulates the whole body, thus allowing it to work better. Allowing me to help each client with there own individual needs.

As I am also a carer at home I have been able to realize how important these therapies can be.

Pilates; Ideal for everyone

THE Pilates technique was originally created by Joseph Pilates in the early 1900s and is still one of the most popular techniques in the world today. Originally it was called con-trollogy because Pilates believed the mind controls the muscles. It became a hit with dancers who used his method to prevent and recover from injuries.

Physiotherapist's Osteopaths and doctors often recommend the Pilates technique. Taught by a qualified practitioner it is one of the safest forms of exercise.

Pilates is a series of meticulous, slow moving exercises designed to strengthen balance and stretch the body. Existing clients mention they notice an increase in their mobility, and relief from aches and pains. By paying attention to how movements are performed the body/mind connection can re-awaken and re-educate the neuromuscular system which in turn results in Pilates exercises helping people who have; back pain, sports injuries, postural imbalances, stress and depression, low immunity and common illnesses, headaches & tension, strokes, osteoporosis and arthritis.

It can also be very beneficial for any sports and dance enthusiasts wanting to enhance their performance.

An appointment at my studio in Uplyme offers the very best in Pilates equipment, customer care and qualified teaching expertise.

Lighter Life – Weight loss

Brenda's LighterLife Success!

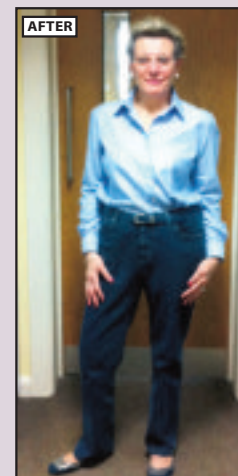

LOCAL resident Brenda Sibley has sensationally dropped 4 dress sizes with the help of her LighterLife counsellor, Celia Manville, and is now able to finally live life to full... just in time for her TV debut!

STARRING in a national TV documentary was an unexpected bonus to losing weight for Brenda Sibley and her 91-year-old mum Hetty.

Brenda explains how Celia's support on the programme has helped her confidence come back 10-fold "the clothing in my wardrobe fits me and I've had to give away quite a few outfits because they're too big for me. Generally I look at the world in a different way, I feel so much happier and am always telling people about LighterLife."

"If it wasn't for Celia I don't think I would be sitting here talking to you, she's incredible, she gives you the utmost support and help. It was as simple as falling off a log, you're given your packs and you eat and drink what you should, that's it."

If you, like Brenda, have had enough of excuses and yo yo dieting and are ready to make a real and lasting change, then embark on your LighterLife journey today! Contact Celia Manville on 07515 699801 or email celia.manville@lighterlifecounsellor.com. For general information about LighterLife visit www.lighterlife.com

What a difference a year makes

FOR years Christine Richards has battled with her weight, and about 10 years ago developed back problems that were life changing and left her battling pain ever since. Despite being advised by her Dr to lose weight Christine could not find the "diet" for her. She became more and more solitary with no confidence and got caught in a vicious spiral of ill health and comfort eating. It was a shock being told she had a cholesterol level of 10.6, double the acceptable level, and being told she was grossly obese.

Said Christine "I cried myself all the way home and continued to comfort eat and hate myself for letting this happen. I wasn't blaming anyone else, it was me who had allowed it to get this far, and it was only me who could change it".

The turning point came on a shopping trip when I picked up the local paper and was drawn to a story of one person's battle with weight and their journey to success. "I was consumed by a realisation that this could be about me!!!! It was the wake up call I needed as this seemed more real than a warning from my Dr!"

With the support of her husband, Christine decided it was time to join a Slimming Group in Honiton. "Tuesday came and the day seemed so long, my nerves were in tatters, but I knew I had to go to Slimming World that evening. I actually walked to the meeting and it was the hardest walk I had ever made. I stood outside the door my heart pounding and my legs like jelly, and on stepping in realised there were some familiar faces and people were smiling at me which is not what I expected. The moment Sharon, the Consultant, introduced herself to me I felt some sort of inner peace as it felt right to be there. I was totally reassured that I would get the support I needed throughout, and I knew I had done the right thing by going"

"Although I was scared when I first weighed, the weight started to drop off and all by enjoying food I loved. I still have the card I received for receiving my first ½ stone, and one year on I have now achieved my own Personal Target Weight and couldn't be happier. I walk everywhere now, I have my confidence back and even help Sharon in group now. I even go out socially which was a no-no beforeI have my life back"

Christine attends Slimming World at the Honiton Baptist Church which is held on Tuesdays @ 5.30pm & 7.30pm and also on Wednesdays @ 9.30am & 11.30am. For more information please call Sharon on 01404 41513.

Christmas time on the Axe Estuary Wetlands

WHEN it comes to Christmas decorations – natural is best!

That was the view of more than 60 visitors who dropped in to the Field Studies Base on the Axe Estuary Wetlands to learn to hand craft a Christmas wreath from natural materials on a woven willow base.

Countryside Education Ranger Meg Knowles and

by Laura Goldsbury Noy

laura@pemedial.co.uk

volunteer Liz Chilcott supported people by demonstrating wreath-making techniques.

Creativity knew no bounds, as everyone was soon excitedly absorbed in fashioning their own individual natural work of art.

The session provided the perfect antidote to the heady commercialism of the modern Christmas, and there was a real sense of old-fashioned festive spirit in the air as people of all ages joined together using a variety of natural materials gathered from the nature reserve to make their wreaths.

Festive visitors to the Wetlands were warmed by mulled wine and mince pies, served by volunteer wardens manning the information centre, which was open during the wreath-making event.

East Devon District Council Countryside team are very grateful to the team of volunteers.

Visitors can drop into the information centre every Saturday during the winter months between 10 am and 4 pm for a friendly chat with wardens about recent wildlife sightings on the Wetlands.

There are also several miles of footpaths, many of which are wheelchair accessible, and now is a great time of year to spot wildlife.

A few visitors were lucky enough to catch a glimpse of one of the many young kingfishers presently wintering there during the festive event.

For more information on the Axe Estuary Wetlands and other local nature reserves visit www.eastdevon.gov.uk/countryside or call the Countryside team on 01395 517557 for more details.

School Nativity's Wild West theme

KEY Stage One pupils took to the stage for Seaton Primary School's annual Nativity play.

This year's production had a modern twist with a Wild West theme and a focus on the stable animals as the children took to the stage with song and dance.

'Prickly Hay' featured a cowboy and a mouse arriving at the stable to find the hay was just not comfortable for Baby Jesus.

Replacing the hay with a softer variety, the pair told the story of the Nativity alongside two young narrators in sparkly dresses.

From a huge group of cowboys and girls dancing around the stage in true western fashion, featuring cowboy hats and checkered shirts, to a more traditional sight of sparkling angels twirling and animal costumes - the play was fun and entertaining for all.

The true Nativity story didn't lose its meaning with a heart warming performance from Mary, played by Florence Winter.

The kings, shepherds and angels also pulled together the foundations of the traditional Christmas tale.

A spokesperson for the school said: "The children have done a wonderful job, embracing the stage, learning their lines and all the songs and putting on a fantastic production."

"Thanks to all the children and staff involved, as well as to the families that have contributed or supported the performances."

Council goes gold

■ STAFF and managers at East Devon District Council join with leader Paul Diviani to celebrate achieving Investors in People gold

EDDC has won a top Investors in People award following a recent review - one of only two district councils in the South West to achieve the gold standard.

The accolade is official recognition that EDDC is among the best employers in the region.

Assessor Julie Luscombe summed up her report saying: "Having carried out the review process in accordance with the guidelines provided by Investors in People - UK Commission for Employment and Skills, I am totally satisfied that East Devon District Council meets the requirements of the Investors in People National Standard.

"I am pleased also to state that you meet a total of 165 evidence requirements and that you have achieved gold level".

Investors in People Gold is awarded to just 3.2 per cent of organisations in the UK and is held by just one other council in the South West.

Commenting on the award, EDDC leader Paul Diviani said: "My warmest congratulations go to the HR team for their hard work in setting out the framework for compliance with this exacting assessment and to all the unsung heroes among our employees who play a part in helping us to run the council efficiently and to face the many challenges we meet".

■ HIGHLY STUNG: Emma Norris and Trudi Brown get to grips with the roof of a beehive

Thinking of keeping bees in the new year?

By Anders Larsson

anders@tindlenews.co.uk

BEEKEEPING could earn you lots of "kudos from neighbours".

That is the incentive used by members of East Devon Beekeepers (EDB) in their recruiting campaign for a beginners' course soon to start on January 28th.

In promotional material - headlined 'pleasures of beekeeping' - prospective beekeepers are told: "Contrary to popular opinion, collecting a swarm from someone's garden is sheer fun, and gets you lots of kudos from neighbours."

East Devon Beekeepers is a branch of Devon Beekeepers' Association and has an apiary on a farm between Axminster and Kilminster.

Apart from East Devon, the branch also draws members from neighbouring parts of Somerset and Dorset. The current membership stands at about 150, but it is hoped this will swell after the course for beginners.

The initial part of the 2013 beginners' course will be held in the cricket pavilion in Kilminster, to be followed by summer sessions at the branch apiary.

EDB member Rowland Molony outlined the curriculum by saying:

"The beginners' course starts in January and meets regularly through to April, when meetings move across to the branch apiary where participants get to handle bees, identify the internal working parts of a hive, and understand the natural organisation of a colony.

"This means identifying queen, workers, drones, learning about their individual life-cycles, and the division of labour between the bees.

"The hive is composed of many components, so students become familiar with this type of hardware.

"They also see the value of suitable clothing, and necessary personal equipment.

"Managing bees throughout the year is a vital part of the course: that is through spring expansion, dealing with swarms, harvesting honey and preparing bees for winter.

"Students also learn about stings, using smoke, keeping records, liaising with the public, selling honey, and many many more areas that get opened up by studying flowers, pollen, nectar, and the biology of the bee."

Trudi Morgan is one of those who took up beekeeping after attending the annual course. She said: "It is the third summer coming up, so I'm a novice.

"I always wanted to keep bees and a friend told me there was one place left on the course."

Her fellow beekeeper Emma Norris has been involved a little longer. She took up the hobby eight years ago and told Pulman's View: "I inherited my grandfather's old beehives.

"He kept bees in the 1930s and during the war.

"I hadn't known him as a beekeeper but I had heard the stories.

"Another beekeeper persuaded me to have a go, and it was infectious."

For further information about EDB and the course, contact Richard Simpson on 01297 551070. Information is also available online at www.eastdevonbees.org.uk ■ PUPILS at primary schools in Colyton, Kilminster, Shute and Seaton collected food and presents for those less fortunate in the run-up to Christmas.

The four primary schools make up Axe Valley Beacon Federation and supported the food banks in Seaton and Axminster.

The governing body of the federation voted to support a cause on their doorstep, one which could make all the difference at Christmas.

Children from the four schools collected food, luxury goods, books and toys in good condition.

Alan Simpson, who is the executive head of the federation, said: "Our four schools are at the heart of the Axe Valley so it seemed right, in a time of continued economic hardship, to look after those in our community who find themselves in difficulty at Christmas."

It's no longer local opinion that counts

■ 'BETWEEN a rock and a hard place' best describes the status of local opinion in the planning process.

Yet another appeal decision - this time that of Redrow Homes, who propose to develop a greenfield site east of Butts Road, Ottery St Mary - has run counter to local public opinion and that of the OSM Town Council and East Devon District Council.

All parties were unified in favouring the development of the Switchgear Factory (brownfield) site and the Island Farm site, both located to the west of the town.

In his report published on December 14th, Neil Pope, the planning inspector, summed up the current status of public local opinion and the democratic process by confirming that: "There is much local opposition to the appeal scheme and I have noted ... a Government objective of empowering local people to shape their surroundings.

"Whilst I do not set these concerns aside lightly, local opposition is not in itself sufficient to withhold permission.

"Moreover, the Government has also made it clear that housing market requirements are important, as well as the need to facilitate housing and respond positively to wider opportunities for growth."

Forget Structure Plans, forget Local Plans, a new reality has come into existence triggered by the Localisation Act 2011 and the emergence of the National Planning Policy Framework (NPPF).

It is no longer local opinion that counts. It is the political whim of centralised government that matters more.

There is a deluded belief that our current economic ills will be ended, by allowing unfettered development of the countryside.

The crucial matter that tipped the scales in favour of the developer was that, once again, as in the recent case at Feniton, EDDC "have failed to convincingly confirm, on a district-wide basis, a five year supply of deliverable sites for housing".

At the inquiry's previous plans were declared as time-expired and in the void that has been created between these earlier plans and the emerging East Devon Local Plan (2006-2026) developers now have the upper hand and will exploit every opportunity to develop sites whether they are in Ottery, Feniton, Seaton, Axminster, West Hill, Exmouth or Sidmouth. Development is inevitable.

We need more affordable homes, more employment opportunities, improved social provision and sites for school expansion.

What is at issue is the scale of the developments and their location. This is where public opinion is essential.

The current free-for-all will inevitably lead to poor planning decisions. EDDC planners must shoulder some blame for allowing this void to emerge. There is an opportunity to close the void.

Rather than give in to unfettered development pressures it is vital that in East Devon we respond by making our representations clear on the emerging Local Plan.

The deadline for comments is the January 14th. We also need to make it clear to our elected MPs that the new planning framework does threaten the countryside and has weakened the democratic process.

Butts Hill, Ottery is proof, if proof were needed. How can the opinion of so many count for so little?

MICK KOCH,
Ottery St Mary

Beach rules on dogs should be the same all year round

■ WHY is it that as soon as the ban on dogs on Seaton seafront is lifted, people seem to think that it is okay to let there dogs do a massive dropping and then feel that it's not there responsibility to pick it up?

Seaton seafront is covered in dog mess. It's totally disgusting.

As a parent of a young child I enjoy going to the seaside for a nice walk and play on the beach but now feel that we are unable to do this for hygiene reasons.

My son is two-and-a-half and loves picking the pebbles from the beach. This is no longer possible as he may pick up some dog's mess one day.

I work in Somerset and people at my work have also commented that they rarely go to Seaton as its filthy on the seafront. I don't see why we cannot just keep the beach the same as it is in the summer period. Dogs are still allowed but in designated areas.

Maybe if there was somebody patrolling the beach and fining the people responsible this would be a deterrent.

MR N GRINDROD,

Thanks from CB

We would also like to thank the Seaton Chamber of Commerce and the town hall for a wonderful evening.

Jackie goes Jurassic for Folk Guest Night

JACKIE Oates is well known as a star in folk circles, but for those who haven't heard her, pin back your ears: Jackie Oates is winner of two BBC Folk Awards 2009, was shortlisted for the fRoots Critics Poll Album 2009 with her album 'Hyperboreans', reached No. 5 - Mojo Folk Album of the Year Chart 2009 for the same album, was nominated for three BBC Folk Awards 2010 and is an Associate Artist of EFDSS. Formerly a member of the Mercury-nominated Rachel Unthank and The Winterset, she left the band in 2007 to pursue a solo career. A swathe of glowing national reviews came with the 2008 release of her album 'The Violet Hour' soon after, with the album going on to be one of Mojo's top ten folk albums of the year in 2008. The new year saw Jackie walking away with a remarkable two 2009 BBC Radio 2 Folk Awards including the Horizon Award for best newcomer, the award which had alluded her the year before. Jackie Oates, solo artist, had arrived. Newly signed to One Little Indian Records, in September 2009 Jackie released 'Hyperboreans' the highly anticipated follow-up to 'The Violet Hour' in the UK. Produced by her brother Jim Moray and featuring a title track written for her by Alasdair Roberts, it sizzled with a new confidence and maturity. She has gone on to do a main stage performance at Cambridge Folk Festival as well as performing a many other UK festivals including regular performances at Sidmouth. Jackie is also a permanent part of the Imagined Village line up and took part in the 2011/2012 Cecil Sharp Project. Her latest album 'Saturnine' was released in September 2011 and resulted in two nominations in the 2012 BBC Radio 2 Folk Awards for best album and folk singer of the year. And if that doesn't convince you, listen to some of the press.

Jackie is accompanied by Tristan Seume, who is one of the UK's leading acoustic guitarists as a soloist, accompanist and session musician, and is a regular member of Jackie's band. And support on this fabulous night will be provided by Mark Waistell, a superb singer/songwriter, who would warrant a complete page to tell you of his fascinating story, but we haven't space for that so best just come along on the night. It all happens at Jurassic Folk at the Grove Nite Club, Seaton, on Wednesday, January 9th, doors open 7.45pm. Advance tickets are £8, (£10 on the door if any left), and are available from the website www.eastdevonfolk.org or by phoning 01297 20064.

Axminster Drama Club Pied Piper rehearsals under way

REHEARSALS are well under way for Axminster Drama Club's panto The Pied Piper of Hamelin which takes place at the Guildhall Axminster from 17th to 19th January. The show features many new faces as well as a number of familiar ones and a large troupe of children, 31 in total playing the parts of rats and village children.

Tickets are now on sale at Archway Bookshop in Church Street Axminster (telephone 01297 33595) priced at only £8 (£6.50 for under 16's and over 65's) or can be purchased by calling 01404 831089 after hours.

Caroline Markham as Simple Simon and Leigh Conley as Mother Hubbard during rehearsals

THE BOYS ARE BACK IN TOWN AND THEY'RE ON A MISSION!

IN 1980 Joliet Jake Blues was released from prison after serving a three year prison term for armed robbery. Immediately he and his brother Jake embarked on a mission to put the old Blues Brothers band back together. Everyone remembers that explosive performance at The Palace Hotel Ballroom where a sellout, congenial crowd was joined by hostile police officers and rival band 'The Good Ol' Boys'. Jake and Elwood were sensational, but sadly their days of freedom were numbered. The Justice Department eventually caught up with them, throwing them in jail for a multitude of 'minor' misdemeanours.

Today, Shake A Tail Feather., featuring the Joliet Blues Band with the talents of award winning actors Dave Ratty and Iain Barton (Jerry Lee Lewis Story, Seance, Talbot House) as Jake and Elwood Blues, is on a mission to bring the best loved songs from The Blues Brothers' repertoire to theatres across the country. Supported by the mighty voices of The BeeVees and a fabulous 6 piece blues and soul band, they reignite those old favourites from both Blues Brothers' films and concerts including of course Shake a Tail-feather, Sweet Home Chicago, Everybody Needs Somebody, Gimme Some Lovin, Peter Gunn and Soul Man.

Those that are already fans will love the authenticity, those that are Blues Brothers virgins will be in for an experience that will blow their mind. So don your shades and fedora, and join the mission!

'Shake a Tail Feather' featuring the Joliet Blues

Band are coming to the Pavilion Theatre in Exmouth on Thursday, January 31st.

To book tickets call the box office on 01395 222477.

SERVICEEast Devon Cleaning
For a healthier home...

EAST Devon Cleaning Services is a privately owned, local business, and a full member of the National Carpet Cleaners Association (NCCA) the only nationally recognised trade association dedicated to the cleaning of your carpets, hard flooring, chairs and sofas.

As a member of the NCCA, with East Devon Cleaning Services, you can have peace of mind that your valuable flooring and upholstery is safe in our hands, being fully insured and professionally trained and certified.

Our state of the art cleaning machinery is many times more powerful than most machines offering you a superior, deeper clean with faster drying times. We use the latest leading eco-friendly cleaning pre-sprays and solutions, agitation and then hot water extraction to remove traffic lane dirt, spills, around 95% of stains, eliminating pet odours or carpet smells in general. Your carpet or upholstery will be left nearly dry and without any sticky, dirt attracting residues which will prevent rapid resoiling.

Just as the clothes we wear day to day, year to year become dirty and worn so do our chairs, sofas and carpets. A professional clean can remove any dirt and proteins that have built up, restore the pile and bring new life to your carpets and upholstery ensuring a much healthier home.

Driveways, garden paths and patio areas can become slippery and dangerous at this time of year, a thorough clean can ensure your external hard floor areas are free of moss and slime preventing slips and falls over Christmas and in the new year.

East Devon Cleaning Services believes the success of the company relies on giving the best possible customer service. Not just a superior clean, but a friendly, knowledgeable and reliable service you can rely on. If you have 3 rooms or 2 rooms and a suite cleaned before Christmas we will clean and additional room for FREE.

New Kia Sorento wins special award from Total 4x4

- Sorento wins "Most Improved" award
- Sorento's third win in a row
- "Only an all-new Range Rover could prevent third category win" – Editor says

THE new Kia Sorento has picked up its third Total 4x4 magazine award in a row with a special award for being the "Most Improved" contender. Launched in the UK and Europe in September, the Sorento has a long list of improvements including a new platform, revised engines, enhanced interior quality and a smarter, more modern look.

Total 4x4 have twice previously given the Sorento top honours in the "Full-Size" category, but this year it just lost out to the all-new Range Rover.

Editor Alan Kidd said: "The Sorento has won its class in each of the last two years, beating a whole range of premium opposition in the process. This year's upgrades move it closer than ever to becoming a premium SUV itself; we didn't have many criticisms of the old model, but Kia has addressed every single one of them.

"The Sorento was already one of the best 4x4s on the market; now it's better than ever, and by a long way. Nothing less than an all-new Range Rover could stop it from completing a hat-trick of class wins, and that says a lot about just how good Kia has become at making world-class 4x4s," he added.

Kia Motors (UK) Limited President and CEO Paul Philpott responded: "Sorento has won friends and plaudits throughout its history and we knew just how improved the all-new version is. I am delighted that Total 4x4 continue to agree with us and I don't even mind the fact that it takes something as remarkable as the highly-praised new Range Rover to see us unseated from that top spot.

"Kia's commitment to developing, designing and producing real cars for real people is unquestioned – so I know we shall be looking to win that crown back. And soon!" he added.

The Sorento range comes only with a 2.2 litre turbo-diesel engine and a host of emission-reducing and fuel-stretching features. Available with a choice of manual or automatic transmissions and seven seats as standard the Sorento range starts at £26,495. Kia's industry-leading, fully transferable seven year warranty is also a standard fitment and owners can fix their running costs three years servicing and MOT for just £379.

For full details on the all-new Sorento range go to www.kia.co.uk

A useful start in Life

Are you maybe thinking of a very useful present for a birthday or Christmas? Then perhaps some driving lessons could be the answer. I have vouchers from £24-£45 or maybe a course of lessons (discounted). It could be the best present ever!

Having a full driving licence is so important for so many reasons, rest assured I teach to a very high standard. I teach safety for life, lessons can be fun and very cost effective.

Quality not Quantity, I have personally developed and perfected over the past years a very unique teaching aid that helps to take away the conscious effort of vehicle control. It helps to coordinate hand, feet and eyes, which means I can teach vehicle control in a much shorter time. Then the real art of thinking outside the car begins.

If you have already passed your theory test then there is a strong possibility that you can still pass your practical before Christmas. So why not have an assessment lesson as soon as possible, you might surprise yourself. I also specialise in intensive courses!

David Light teaching safety for life wishes all his past and present pupils a very Happy Christmas and a successful new year.

Memorable season for the wrong reason!

FOR the second time this season the entire Fresha Devon & Exeter fixture programme, 55 League games and two cup ties, was washed away by the weather on Saturday, December 22nd - exactly one month after the first wipeout.

D&E League doyen Colin Goodwin commented: "In my 40 years as press reporter for the League I cannot recall any season when two Saturdays have been totally redundant."

"It is going to mean a lot of work for Chris Cole in his first year as fixtures secretary."

"But most divisions are currently well under way, and unless the weather remains inclement over the next few months it should not mean a great strain on the annual rush to get the season finished."

"My mention earlier of 40 years reporting on the League set me to look up the record of Devon & Exeter League Secretaries since the second world war."

"Remarkably since that time there have only been FOUR yes just FOUR over the 66 year period to date."

"Our current man in charge Mr Chris Davey took over the reins in 2005, following the longest serving secretary Mr Eric Manning who served the League for 37 years since 1968."

"I do not know whether any other local or national leagues can match that record, but it was a massive commitment for Eric who played the game well into his 60s."

Before Eric took on the task Mr

Walt Sanders was secretary of the Exeter & District League, as it was know then, for ten years and he was handed the job by Mr R Husson who was the League's first secretary after the 1939-45 War years ended.

"Mr Husson had the office for 12 years until Mr Sanders took on in 1958. Records indicate that pre the 1939-45 War Mr R T A Couch was the League's secretary."

Promotion clinched in Gala Final

SQUAD of 32 swimmers represented Chard & District Swimming Club in the final round of the Western Division National Swimming League held at Weston-super-Mare on Saturday, December 8th.

Chard were competing with the top eight clubs in the Division final, and as such were against stiff opposition; they were not intimidated however and maintained a strong position throughout the gala to secure third place overall and promotion to Division 2 next season.

top three positions

Down on a few swimmers this round, Chard still achieved 26 top three positions in the 50 events.

Individual first places went to Tessa Down 15 in the Open Girls 100m Breaststroke, and Henry Taswell 11 in the 11/under 50m backstroke.

The Relay Teams continued to show the determined swimming seen in earlier rounds, with first places going to the Girls 13/under Freestyle and Medley teams.

Full Team: Girls: Abi Dare, Tessa Down, Melissa Hanson, Lauren Harrison, Susan Ross, Elisha Hawkins, Hope Horsfield, Abi Bonning, Flo Swan, Xanthe Dyer, Daisy Brett, Jess Patch, and Jess Fowler.

Boys: Luke van den Barselaar, Jake Hallam, Dan Andrews, Ben Fowler, Joe Spurway, Oli Bilbie, Jamie Pullinger, Jamie Lillington, Ashley Lillington, Paul Harrison, Lewis Pearson, Iain Ross, Ben Greenslade, Henry Taswell, Leo Kindred, Leo Bonning, and Simon Davis.

Congratulations to all the swimmers for another great performance, and a big thank you to all the Club coaches, officials, team managers, and time-keepers who all helped the Club host the event and make it a success.

If you want to find out more about Chard Swimming Club or are interested in joining we have sessions for age 5/6 upwards at pools in Chard, Axminster, Crewkerne and long course training at Millfield.

Buttler hits the heights as Nosworthy is appointed

SOMERSET county cricket club is making the headlines as 2012 draws to a close and 2013 is looming large on the horizon.

Reigning PCA Player-of-the-year Nick Compton was a vital part of England's successful tour of India. The 29-year-old batsman compiled four successive vital opening wicket stands of 50+ with his skipper Alastair Cook as England battled back from 1-0 down to take the four-test series 2-1.

Compton's performances were generally solid if unspectacular. A series average of 34.66 (top score 57, 3rd test, Kolkata) is a good start to his fledgling career wearing the three lions.

Admittedly pitches in India were low and slow and a four or even five pronged spin attack didn't make for fluent stroke-play, but a strike rate of 33.93 (against a career figure of 47.63) will see his ability to 'press-on' come under the microscope when the team travels to New Zealand in February for the three-test series.

Attention amongst Somerset supporters turned to Jos Buttler and the two-game T20 mini-series.

In the opening game in Pune on December 20th the 22-year-old, batting at number six came in England wobbling on 100 for 4 before crashing a 21-ball 34 which included three 6s.

However the hosts eased to a relatively comfortable five-wicket win.

Two days later there was better news for the tourists with Buttler unbeaten with a seven-ball 15 as skipper Eoin Morgan smashed a straight six off the last ball to secure an impressive six wicket triumph.

Buttler is joined by Somerset colleague Craig Kieswetter for the five 50 over one day internationals beginning in Rajkot on January 11th.

Honiton lads set sights on European trials

■ BUSTER Tutchter and Ashley Wallis - handstand on head

■ ADAM Fullick and Megan Jones - straight back somersault

HONITON acrobatic gymnasts Ashley Wallis and Buster Tutchter have their sights firmly set on trials for the European Age Group Championships after securing their third silver medal in a row at British Championship events.

Honiton Community College Student Ashley (13) and his acrobatic partner Buster – also 13 and a pupil at the Woodroffe School in Lyme Regis – took their most recent silver medal at the British Tournament in Stoke on Trent.

Their score of 27.05 put them just behind rivals from Heathrow Gymnastics Club and ahead of the bronze medallists from Horsham in Surrey.

"The boys performed excellently," said high performance coach James Reddy, "showing strength of character after qualifying for the final in fourth position."

They picked up their performance and increased their score in the final by almost a full mark.

The routine included two new balances where Ashley balances on one hand on Buster's head – something they've never performed before in a national competition."

This latest result puts the boys in a strong position to be selected to trial for the European Championships, which take place in October 2013 near Lisbon in Portugal. "They still have a great deal of hard work to do over the next four months, even to be selected to trial," added James, "and will have to improve their average score by more than a full mark for each routine."

"I'm confident that they will put in the hard work that is needed though and add some more moves to their repertoire that will not only help them stand out from the crowd but also increase the difficulty of their routines."

More exceptional results for Honiton's mixed and women's pairs

IN addition to Buster and Ashley's success, Honiton also had some exceptional results in the 11-16 mixed pair category – where partnerships narrowly missed out on medals – and in the 11-16 women's pair event.

In the mixed pairs 10-year-old Megan Jones and 15-year-old Adam Fullick finished in fourth position.

In joint fifth position were 11-year-old Charlotte Bevis and 16-year-old Josh Jackson alongside 11-year-old Megan Cross and 15-year-old Sean Kingston.

In the women's pairs event – the most competitive category of the weekend – Honiton's Kaisha Dessalines-Wright and Alice Hewstone finished in 11th position.

"It's an achievement in itself to have five partnerships that reach a high enough standard to compete at British Championship events," added James.

"Many of the clubs we compete against have full-time coaches, purpose built facilities, and more than 1,000 members."

But we're showing that, despite Honiton only being a small town, we can challenge the best in the country."

Thirty four gymnasts from Honiton's squad have also just finished a five-show appearance at Ivybridge Community College where they performed a dramatic 'Vampires' routine in front of a total of more than 2,000 spectators.

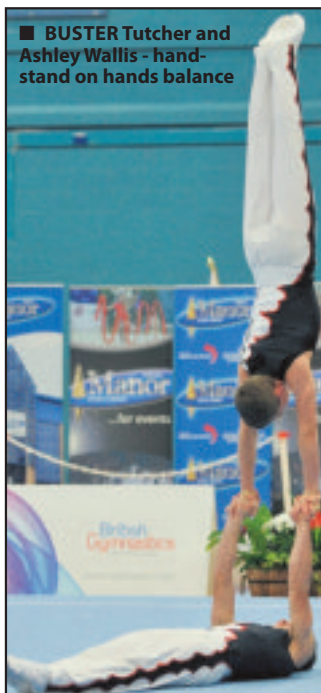

The theatrical piece, which was a highlight of the three-hour show, was scheduled to be used at the club's Christmas display on December 21st and will also be performed at a number of local fetes and galas in summer 2013.

Win for Weston

AXE CLIFF WITH JANET DACK

CONSIDERING the recent extremely wet weather the recent Seniors December Medal was rain free with little wind, which resulted in some the excellent scores.

The winner, with a superb 66 nett, was Dave Weston (21), whose inward half 40, helped him to beat Alan Vincent (19), the early leader with 67, one stroke.

Two players returned scores of 68 but third place on countback went to Mike Jamieson (25) with Roger Hill (18) the player to miss out on the prizes.

There were four 2s, from John Mant, Nick Stanton, Geoff Hubbard and Vincent.

HONITON WITH ANDY WAGNER

THE last Chivers Goblets to be played in 2012 was last Tuesday's competition a 'Drawn for partners', Greensome Stableford.

The winners were Jane Watts and Andy Sharland with 37pts. In 2nd place with 36pts were Olwen Eaton and Max Pipe with 3rd place going to Lady Vice-Captain Pam Greenaway and Jason Gosling with 35pts.

Wessex area Point-to-Point season preview

Compiled by Brian Armstrong and Bob Bracher

Dorset/Devon Border

GORDON Herrod will race three horses, including Feel The Beat, from his Axminster base.

Dalmatian and Mullins Mill, a good third at Treborough Hill and Upcott Cross last season, complete the team.

Wiltshire

CHARLOTTE Tizzard, who enjoyed a splendid first season at Wingfield near Trowbridge, relies on the same three horses for 2012/13.

These are Coombe Hill, winner of two points plus hunter chases at Taunton and the Cheltenham Hunter Chase evening, the promising Little Cornham, who won his first two points to points, and Larkhill winner Parstara, who is likely to appear early in the campaign.

Figheledean near Larkhill Racecourse owner-trainers Sally and Stan Rawlins will again race Righteous Glory, who took his tally to four in the Royal Artillery Hunt race in January.

Camilla Baylis, who sent out Shooter's Wood to win at the 2010 Cheltenham Hunter Chase evening, will race Chepstow Flat race winner Blue Spartan, who has finished in the frame in half of his six hurdle races, from her Maiden Bradley base.

Faneuil Hall and Choice Connection have retired, so Lester and Katie Symonds rely on Saketini to represent their home near Warminster.

Sutton Veny owner-trainer Caroline Hobbs has retained Brahamagiri, the winner of two races last season and Rokshi who was placed in a maiden.

Philip Thomas, who opened his account on Brahamagiri at Larkhill, will continue to ride for Caroline.

Winterslow handler Sharon Brown is busy teaching via her Real Riders Club, but Champing at the bit!

Triumphs for Chard Tennis Club

CHARD Tennis Club had their Christmas party last Friday when Amanda Campbell, Club Chair, gave a speech and presented cups to team captains.

The Ladies A team won Division 1 in the Yeovil & District League and the local Knock Out Cup.

The Ladies B Team won Division 3 and will be promoted, for the second year running, to Division 2. The Ladies C team also did well finishing third in Division 4.

A special mention was made to the Club Coach, Sally Freeman, for her endless encouragement and enthusiasm. Sally is a member of the GB Veterans team.

The Club is also privileged to have Jacky Boothman as a member. Jacky is also a veteran tennis player and has recently returned from Croatia where she represented Great Britain in the World Team Championships.

Further successes for the club were achieved in the Mixed Doubles league with promotion to Division 1 being secured by the Chard A team who completed the season in second place in Division 2.

Chard also fielded a second Mixed team and a Men's team in the League.

These teams had some successes but were hampered by injuries to key players.

New players

New players are always welcomed.

If you enjoy playing tennis, want to exercise and keep fit, play social tennis or play for the club in matches, please come along to club night on a Tuesday evening at Zembard Lane (access via Chard Town FC).
